

SAILING SOLO? – IT’S EASY!

Jenny Williams, a travel agent with over 35 years industry experience, knows that sinking feeling on a cruise ship. No, no - not in a Titanic-esque kind of way! It’s when, as a single traveller, you enter the ship’s dining room, after a jog around the deck, a relaxing swim, a massage, a nap - because you can! No commitments –no worries! You’re dressed for dinner, you look fabulous - ready for a great night and you’re seated.....with a “smug married couple” on one side and a family of four screaming kids on the other! Oh dear – send the life boats!

Enter Delphinus to the rescue! On the 26th March 2006 Jenny Williams, founder and Managing Director, launches her unique cruise company specifically for the single traveller.

Aboard any of the worlds cruise liners, Delphinus offers exclusive, fully escorted groups made up of single passengers – but here’s the catch – you have to be between the ages of 35 and 65. (the range can differ from cruise to cruise). As part of this exclusive group, you can enjoy the company of like minded people, at dinner and special land excursions and other activities. You even have the privilege of your own cocktail party, hosted by your cruise hostess.

Thanks to Jenny’s past experience in singles cruises, she puts together a finely tuned holiday that gives her clients the confidence and security of belonging to a compatible group, with the freedom to make the experience their own.

And it’s Jenny’s passion and diligence that make Delphinus unique! “I take the time to chat to each client and discover what they want from their cruising experience,” says Jenny. “Whether they want a non stop party or a more sedate relaxing cruise, I make sure that together we choose the cruise that’s right for them.”

According to Jenny, the singles market gets a bad deal when it comes to cruising. If you’re single and ever travelled alone you’ll know about the dreaded single supplement, a system that potentially makes your holiday almost triple the cost! “As far as the cruise lines are concerned, you’re solely occupying a “shared” cabin, effectively robbing them of another paying body so they charge you extra for taking up that space!” says Jenny.

That’s where Delphinus is different – they offer a guaranteed share option to avoid the single supplement. But if you’re nervous about just who you’ll share with, don’t worry – that’s where Jenny’s innate intuition kicks in! Over the years, Jenny has teamed up compatible cabin partners based on their personalities, needs and individual idiosyncrasies. (for example, if Jenny discovers a “snorer”, she recommends ear plugs for the cabin mate!) In fact some of the partnerships have been so successful, they have become life long friends, something Jenny finds particularly rewarding. “I’m passionate about people and travel and my biggest thrill is helping them make their holiday an experience of a life time, one where they create amazing memories and make life long friends.” says Jenny.

Delphinus’ maiden voyage is an exhilarating 16 night Asian Adventure that takes in the magic of the Asia-Pacific with a world of tropical sunshine, stunning beaches, exotic cuisine and some of the friendliest, people on earth! It’s a cruise filled with historical wonders, amazing culture and fabulous shopping and sets sail on the 4th September 2006.
